GOVERNMENT OF MYSORE 23/3/10

Repd & closed

Dear Mr Ananda Rao.

I understood that when I accepted service I/we stated that my services were counted till I had completed service for my highest pension at 38 years.

Mr Crawford. without informing me. would I believe & the Govt of India suggesting that the 25th. perhaps I can save trouble about pay. You will not mind telegraphing if necessary.

Yours sincerely

the Dunbar should be asked to renew my services every five years.

It was of course extremely unfair to make any change. after I had once cut myself adrift
from the Regular Military service but I had every confidence in the Dunbar & made no
fuss.

I thought that so claim
had been now obtained by my extension to 38 years service

Apparently this is not the case.

Would you mind obtaining this highness wishes.

I think he would like me to stay on. I did not
